The sum raised to defray county expenses for the year 1899 was fifteen thousand dollars, one thousand dollars less than for 1898 (see report of county convention in County Report for 1898). This is the smallest sum ever raised for that purpose, and your Commissioners, in those matters under their control, as far as consistent with humanity and common sense, have endeavored "to cut the garment according to the cloth." We have paid for the support of paupers away from the Farm and for aid to indigent soldiers, $4,933.27, a decrease from last year of $563.94; for the support of the County Farm and Almshouse, $4,384.00, a decrease of $331.69; and the whole amount of orders drawn by us during the year has been $12,912.83, a decrease of $1,117.81. But the unusually long term of court in October, at a cost of $3,985.48, an increase over the cost of the October term in 1898, of $3,275.53, accounts for the increase in the county debt.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meloon continue in charge of the County Farm and Almshouse. Their management during the year has given entire satisfaction.

Upon the recommendation of the county delegation, a night watchman has been employed at the Almshouse since April 1, who makes a tour of the buildings every hour during the night.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF CARROLL COUNTY :

In the appeal case of State v. Robert Fosse, the respondent not appearing, the case was certified to the magistrate by the Clerk. At said term of Court there was one criminal jury trial, in the case for cruelty to animal, that resulted in disagreement of the jury.

In the case for aggravated assault, the respondent plead nolo, and was sentenced ninety days in jail. Mittimus issued April 20; 1899, committed.

In one of the two larceny cases, the respondent, William M. Nason, alias Pete Shackley, having been sentenced to State Prison on another case, the order was made. not to go forward, and in the other larceny case, the respondent having been a long time confined in jail for same offence before indictment, he was discharged by order of Court.

In the case of State against George E. Dalton, for keeping spirituous liquor for sale, there was fine imposed, and costs were also imposed, amounting in the whole to $101.18, which sum has been paid, and in the case of State against Frank Siminoe for keeping spirituous liquor for sale there was fine imposed and costs, amounting to $65.66, which sum has also been paid. There were seven other liquor cases in which it was ordered that mittimus should issue on call of the Solicitor whenever reliable and satisfactory complaints of continued sales against the respondents were made to him, which were not to him presented.

OCTOBER TERM OF SUPREME COURT.

At this term of Court there were nine continued cases upon the State Docket that were disposed of as follows:

The case of State v. Curtis E. Cook, indictment for larceny, was marked, not to go forward, evidence found insufficient upon investigation.

State v. Charles W. Woodward, indictment for false pretense, was continued.

State v. Dean Dinsmore and Edward Thompson, indictment for hunting deer, was marked, not to go forward, evidence having been ascertained to be insufficient.

In State v. Robert F. Dee, indictment for burglary, there was trial by jury that resulted in disagreement, and respondent near close of term afterward plead nolo, and was sentenced five months in jail where he had been confined about six months for same offence, and was ordered to pay costs of prosecution. Mittimus issued Nov. 15, 1899, committed.

State v. Edward Lessor and Frank Lessor, Jr., indictment for cruelty to animal, in which there had been a previous term disagreement of jury, was marked, not to go forward.

State v. Edward H. Thompson, indictment for keeping liquor for sale, was marked, with concurrence of complainant, not to go forward. The remaining three continued cases were against Phebe Clarke, and were indictments for keeping liquor for sale. The respondent in those cases having been represented to have left the State, two of the cases were marked, not to go forward, and one was continued.

At said October term of Court there were thirty-nine indictments found by the Grand Jury as follows:

Aggravated assault, 2; cruelty to animal, 1; larceny, 1; burglary, 1; attempted assault with intent to kill, 1; keeping beer and malt, 8; keeping spirituous liquor for sale, 25. The appeal in case of State v. George A. Roles was dismissed. In the case of Jonathan B. Colbath, indictment for aggravated assault there was trial by jury and acquittal upon contradictory evidence.

In State v. Thomas Elias, indictment for aggravated assault, there was plea of guilty to simple assault, which was accepted, and respondent was sentenced to confinement in jail for sixty days, and was ordered to pay costs of prosecution. Mittimus issued October 2, 1899, committed.

In case of State v. Herbert Sanborn, indictment for cruelty to animal, respondent plead guilty, and was discharged by order of Court by reason of previous long confinement in jail for same offence.

In case State v. John H. Clarke, indictment for grand larceny, respondent plead guilty, and was sentenced to confinement in State Prison for the term of one year and one day, and was ordered to pay cost of prosecution. Mittimus issued October 27, 1899, committed.

In case State v. Grover C. Kimball and Dennis Clough, minors, indictment for burglary, the respondents plead nolo, and were each sentenced to confinement for the term of two years at the State Industrial School. Mittimus issued October 26, 1899, committed.

In case State v. Elisha P. Allen, indictment for keeping spirituous liquor for sale, fine and costs were imposed upon plea of nolo, amounting to $61.97, which has been paid.

In cases State v. Charles E. King, two indictments for keeping beer for sale, the respondent plead nolo and was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars in each and the costs, amounting in all to the sum of $36.97, and the fines were paid, and mittimus as to the costs has been called for upon recent reliable complaint of continued sales, and been placed in the hands of an officer for service.

In the case of State v. Frank Siminoe, indictment for keeping beer for sale respondent plead nolo, and was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs of prosecution in this and other cases, amounting to $52.52, which have both been paid.

In case of State v. Thomas Elias, indictment for keeping beer for sale, upon evidence connected with another case respondent plead guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars, which has been paid.

In case State v. Michael Costello, indictment for keeping malt liquor for sale, the respondent plead nolo, and was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and the costs of prosecution, amounting to $11.17, which have both been paid.

In the case of State v. Edward Butler, indictment for keeping beer for sale, the respondent plead nolo, and was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs, amounting to $10.16, which have both been paid.

The case of State against Geo. E. Dalton, for keeping spirituous liquor for sale, was ascertained upon careful investigation to be barred in fact by the statute of limitations, and it was therefore marked, not to go forward.

Four of the remaining liquor cases were by consent of complainants continued, and in all the others the respondents were required to enter a plea of nolo or guilty, and leave of Court was also therein specially granted the Solicitor to call for mittimuses to enforce the sentences imposed at any time when reliable and satisfactory evidence of continued sales by any of them was presented to him.

It may be here added that since the expiration of the time regularly included in this annual report, mittimuses have been called for by me upon very recent complaints of continued sales and been issued by the Clerk of Court in the cases of State against Charles F. Eastman, Charles E. King, Frank Siminoe, and Michael Costello, which have been placed by me in the hands of competent officers for efficient service. The County is not party to any of the civil actions.

JOSIAH H. HOBBS,

Solicitor of Carroll County.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF CARROLL COUNTY :

GENTLEMEN :—I hereby submit my report as physician for the year ending Dec 31, 1899.

There has been more sickness at the County Farm during the past year than for a few preceding years. It has been seen chiefly among those advanced in life. There are now at the Farm ten over 80 years, fourteen over 70; average age of adults, 55.5. Number of children under ten years, 15; average age, 5. With so large a per cent. of persons at the extremes of life, we have one reason for so many falling sick.

There have been no epidemics or disease caused by bad sanitary conditions. The winter months prove very much more trying to the inmates than the warmer months, notwithstanding modern conveniences of heat, water, etc.
